

The Tree of Life Breathing Practice

Personal Worksheet

This worksheet will track your insights during the 5-day mini-retreat and beyond. Each day you'll discover and record the specific qualities, colors, concepts, words, sounds, images, or energies that resonate most deeply with your healing process. Think of this as creating your own personalized medicine—a unique blend of divine and earthly energies that support your transformation and healing.

How to Use This Worksheet

During the Mini-Retreat:

- ◆ Each day's video will focus on a different aspect of healing
- ◆ Augment the basic Tree of Life Breathing Practice based on your insights from the exercises outlined in each day's video
- ◆ Strive to practice your individualized breathing practice twice a day during the mini-retreat
- ◆ Note how the added elements support your healing process, including the mental, emotional, physical, and energetic challenges you are facing in your cancer journey

After the Mini-Retreat:

- ◆ Use the "Post-Retreat Daily Practice" page to create your ongoing practice
- ◆ Return to your insights from each day's discoveries when you need particular types of support
- ◆ Allow your practice to evolve—add new elements as they arise
